

DAVID L. MILLER
VICE PRESIDENT FOR PUBLIC POLICY
CITIZENS FOR COMMUNITY VALUES, CINCINNATI, OHIO

Born and raised in San Antonio, Texas.

Graduated from Howard Payne University in Brownwood, Texas in 1985 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, majoring in Accounting.

Attended three years of graduate school at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, studying Theology.

Worked in public accounting and private oil and gas accounting in Fort Worth for nine years.

President of Tarrant County, Texas (Fort Worth) affiliate of the American Family Association (AFA) for six years, serving in volunteer and full time employee capacities.

National Field Director for AFA's national office in Tupelo, Mississippi from July, 1997-September, 2001.

Chief Editor of AFA's 48-page booklet, A Guide to What One Person Can Do About Pornography, a practical, comprehensive, step-by-step approach to understanding the problems of pornography and providing solutions to prevent pornography from harming the community.

January 1999, co-produced the video, Suffer the Children: Answering the Homosexual Agenda in Public Schools, which provided educators and parents the knowledge and other tools necessary to respond to the public school agenda of homosexual activists, especially with respect to the widely circulated training video, It's Elementary: Talking About Gay Issues in School.

October, 2001, began serving as Vice President of Citizens for Community Values in Cincinnati, Ohio. Currently works with state and local pro-family organizations and individuals to find public policy and/or citizen action solutions to social and moral concerns.

Recently produced educational resources for parents and educators on Internet safety and how to protect your children from homosexual activism in public schools.

Frequently interviewed as a pro-family spokesperson in print, radio and television.

David has been married to Tina for 21 years and has 6 children, 18 to 6 years in age.
